CRIB POINT ™

15" color touch monitor mounted on a flexible arm for repositioning during issuing and restock activities

Vends up to 60 different part numbers, while storing 1800 packages

CRIBWARE® SelfServe software provides:
• User accountability
• Restock notification
• Limited usage by employee
• Automated reporting

• Bright interior lighting
• Adjustable shelf height
• Flexible configurations
• Easily reconfigured
• Optional solid door

• Bar code scanner for alpha-numeric part number entry
• Optional magnetic stripe or HID reader for ID badges

• Verified-Vend ™ technology senses and confirms each item dispensed
• Delivery bay designed to prevent damage to highly sensitive or fragile items

Return and recycling bin included

Controlled by a fully networked PC for:
• Reporting station connectivity
• System expansion to include other CRIBWARE secure storage devices
• CRIBWARE activities, utilities, security, and management monitoring

Expansion cabinet can hold up to 60 additional part numbers
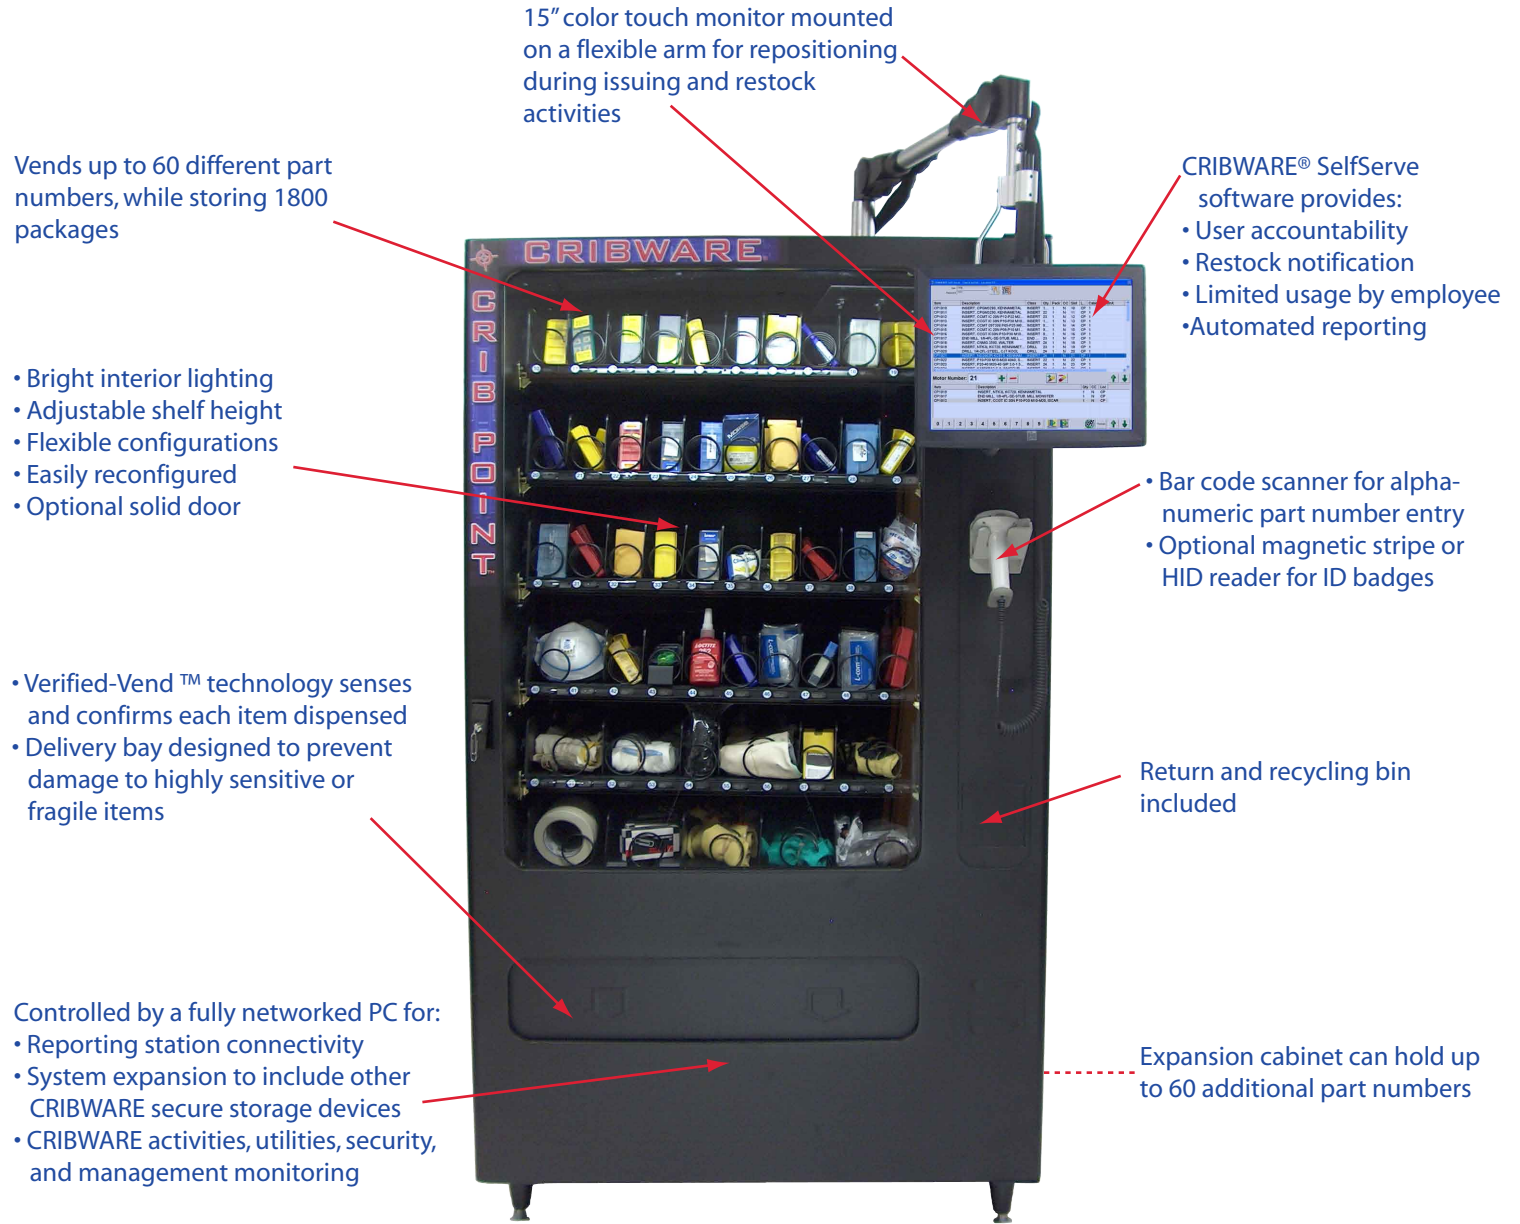

CRIBWARE CRIBPOINT BENEFITS

Individual Item Dispensing
Flexible packaging for dispensing usage quantity.
Absolute control
Authorized usage and accountability tracking.
Point-of-Use Availability
Items are stored and available where they are needed and used.
Secure Inventory Storage
Reduces shrinkage and increases security.

7-day, 24-hour Control
Available anytime, controlled all the time.
Single Software Interface
Simple operations reduce training needs.
Networked to CRIBWARE®
CRIBPOINT activity is monitored, controlled and reported by the CRIBWARE system increasing management oversight.

Applied CIM Technologies, Inc.
15200-25th Avenue North
Minneapolis, MN 55447

CRIBWARE

Telephone: 763-476-4268
Website: www.cribware.com
E-mail: info@appcim.com